FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DOOLIN SECURITY SAVINGS BANK TO AFFILIATE WITH FIRST MUTUAL HOLDING CO.

Affiliation will take place through a proposed merger with FMHC affiliate Belpre Savings Bank

LAKESWOOD, OH, May 11, 2017 – First Mutual Holding Co. (“FMHC”), the largest member -owned mutual holding company of its kind in the Midwest, today announced that Doolin Security Savings Bank, FSB (“Doolin”) agreed to affiliate with FMHC, pending approval of regulatory agencies and of voting members of Doolin.

According to terms of the definitive agreement, New Martinsville, West Virginia-based Doolin, with $48 million in assets, will combine with FMHC subsidiary Belpre Savings Bank, with $48 million in assets. Upon closing, the transaction will create a subsidiary bank with pro forma assets of $96 million that will be headquartered in Belpre, Ohio.

The affiliation with FMHC will enable Doolin to offer its customers a wider range of financial products and services, including small business loans, mobile banking and an enhanced suite of residential and commercial mortgage loan options. In addition, Doolin will benefit from FMHC’s state-of-the-art data processing, operational and financial reporting systems following its integration with Belpre Savings Bank.

“We are strong advocates of mutuality in the financial services industry,” said Thomas J. Fraser, president and CEO of FMHC. “Mutual institutions play a vital role in promoting economic development and supporting essential civic and charitable organizations within their local communities,” he added. “When we formed FMHC, our intent was to assist community banks with strengthening their capacity to serve local customers and markets, and enhancing prospects for balance sheet growth and profit improvement.”

“We have been serving our community as the county’s only hometown bank for over 120 years,” said Robert J. Doyle, president and CEO of Doolin Security Savings Bank. “By joining forces with Belpre Savings Bank and First Mutual Holding Co., we will be better positioned to provide our customers with a broader offering of financial service options. In addition, we will have access to FMHC’s financial strength and resources to further expand into the Greater New Martinsville/Parkersburg geographic region.”

“Doolin Security Savings Bank will be a valuable strategic partner in strengthening both of our institutions,” said Randy D. Shingleton, president and CEO of Belpre Savings Bank. “On a combined basis, we will have greater financial, operational and marketing capacity to expand beyond our traditional geographic markets,” he added.

The transaction is expected to close by the third quarter of 2017.
